Job description Working Student:

Who is Serity and what do we stand for?

We are a dedicated team with unmatched team spirit. We know that the greatest things always come out of a great team. Everyone contributes a unique part to the big picture. This is what makes Serity special.

Multiculturalism and multi-diversity are core values of our company. We are looking forward to getting to know you.

Your Responsibilities as a Working Student at Serity...

- First experiences in scripting (JavaScript, Jelly, HTML).

- Implementation as well as administration of requirements

- Supporting the preparation of presentations of concepts, solutions as well as project status reports.

- Supporting in the specification of solutions and the development of a functional specification.

- Supporting the translation of business requirements into technical requirements and solutions.

- Supporting the configuration/development of ServiceNow according to defined customer requirements.

Looking forward to meeting you